CUBAN MINISTER THINKS HIS COUNTRY CAN SETTLE ITS DIFFICULTIES AT HOME

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The prompt dispatch of General Enoch Crowder to Cuba at the first sign of trouble there and the possibility that he may be followed by a congressional committee to investigate the tangled political and financial situation in the island, is having a salutary effect on the Cuban government, and also has roused Latin-American diplomatic circles.

The Cuban government and President Menocal doesn't want itself investigated by American congressmen. Cuban Minister Cespedes issued a statement tonight, stating pointedly that Cuban problems would find their best solution with the Cuban, not the American Congress. A number of business men having interests in Cuba have called on Senator Hiram Johnson today with information on Cuban affairs.

Dr. Cespedes' statement said: "General Crowder was received with great cordiality by President Menocal and the initial conference they held was highly satisfactory. I have every reason to believe the conference between President Menocal and General Crowder will be very beneficial to interests of the United States and Cuba.

"The problems of Cuba will find their best solution in measures that will be taken by the congress of Cuba to settle the economic and financial crisis as there is no problem in Cuba that cannot be solved satisfactorily in a short time.

"In addition, the patriotism of Cubans themselves will, I am sure, dispel from the political atmosphere all disturbing circumstances that may seem to prevent the political parties of Cuba from reaching a convenient national understanding under the laws and constitution of Cuba, which must and will be upheld."

Senator Hiram Johnson of California, chairman of the Cuban rela-

FARMERS ON INCREASE IN OWNERSHIP OF GRAIN ELEVATORS, IS REPORT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The outstanding development in marketing grain in recent years has been the entry of farmers into the elevator business, as shown by the growth in the number of individual co-operative elevators organized by farmers and used by them in marketing grain, the Federal Trade Commission said today in a report sent to Congress on the grain trade.

Thomas Wilson Optimistic.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—"I can see many reasons for optimism as to the future," declared President Thomas Wilson, of the American Institute of Meat Packers, in a statement issued tonight reviewing business conditions. "Opinions differ as to the probable period required for 'readjustment,'" Wilson said. "There is no difference in opinion, however, as to the necessity for changed conditions and we should all be thankful that transition apparently is being brought about in so orderly a manner. What we now most need is to recover from a spirit of pessimism and realize the great strength of the resources of our country."

Annual Opening Ball at the Hotel Clarendon a Brilliant Affair of Saturday Evening

At the Hotel Clarendon last evening occurred the much talked of and long looked for annual opening ball. This social event is each year eagerly anticipated, not only by the guests of the big hotel, but by all the tourists who are at all inclined toward the social activities of the Triple Cities and by the year round residents.

The scene of the ball this year was equal to that of the past seasons and many of those attending declared it the most brilliant of many years.

The dinner was served in the big dining room from 6:30 until 8:30, and the menu was of the best that it was possible to secure, and included all the delicacies of the season.

Many tables were reserved in advance for the dinner, a partial list including the following:

Maynard Bond, of Lake Helen and party of five.

Mrs. S. E. Bond of DuLand and party of three.

Dr. C. C. Bohannon of Daytona and party of four.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy Howe, Daytona.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Niver of Daytona with party of four.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Otis of Daytona with party of four.

J. K. Plummer of Daytona with party of two.

Mrs. J. D. Price of Ormond Beach with party of six.

H. C. Ross of Ormond with party of six.

J. P. Vining of Ormond Beach with party of three.

R. H. Worthington of Ormond with party of seven.

Henry W. Haynes of the Princess Islena with party of four.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Woodbury of the Rutledge hotel, Daytona, and Mrs. R. W. Austin, of Uniontown, Pa.

It is the endeavor of Messrs. Potter and Root, owner and manager of the hotel, to have this dinner-dance beautiful in all its parts and yet to have it of the most delightful and informal nature. One of their principal objects in giving this ball each season is to have the local people become acquainted with the hotel, its management and its guests and as usual the local people were made to feel entirely at home and an air of genuine and delightful friendliness prevailed.

Music for the dancing was furnished by the regular Hotel Clarendon orchestra, which is one of the best to be found in any of the large resort hotels in the entire state.

The ball room overlooks the sea and from it is extended a spacious veranda on which the dancers love to rest or do the new dances while breathing the health giving salt air.

The ball room glowed with many colored lights, white flowers and many potted plants added to the beauty of the scene. There were the usual number of handsome gowns.

The ball room of the Clarendon is much better located than is the case usually in hotels for it opens direct from the big lobby which gives those who are only spectators most comfortable and luxurious surroundings from which to watch the gay scene, and this year there were many who enjoyed the event who took no part in the dance.

At the midnight hour the guests began to take their departure, among many expressions of appreciation to the management of the Clarendon and all declaring it one of the most successful and happy events that they had ever enjoyed in Florida.

Beautiful gowns featured the Clarendon ball. The ladies were all handsomely gowned in the height of fashion which reflected the modes of Paris and the style centers of America. But summing it all up the fact remains that Daytona leads as the gowns which stood out triumphant were all from Amy's importers, Anthony Brothers and the Elgin Avenue store.

Vivid Description of Suffering Endured By Lost Balloonists Related in Letter by Lt. Kloor

(Copyright 1921 by Star Company and International News Service. All rights reproduction prohibited.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Lieutenant Louis A. Kloor, Jr., the youthful pilot of the ill-fated United States navy balloon, lost in the Canadian wilderness, Ontario, the first and only authentic account of the thrilling voyage into the frozen north.

In three letters received yesterday by Miss Alexandria Flewerton, West 87th street, from Lieut. Kloor, the young aviator vividly describes the suffering and hardship he and his brother officers, Lieutenants Hinton and Farrell, endured on their perilous journey. The first letter tells of the flight from the naval aviation station, Rockaway Point, Long Island. "I am now in a country surrounded by icefields and vast expanses of snow-covered hills and wooded forests. By this time you and the naval authorities have given me and my friends up as lost and never expect us to return again. It appears that way to me. Monday night, when up over New York state, a driving snow storm overtook us. We were flying about 5,000 feet high. For hours during the night we traveled and saw nothing but snow, above and about us. Early next morning fields of ice were all we could see. Not a sign of life in sight for miles. Our ballast was low. We were wringing wet and tired and hungry. We could not land for we would be lost. To remain in the air, we threw overboard everything but our clothing.

"At 1:30 Tuesday, when flying about 6,000 feet high, we could see a hut below us and heard a dog bark. This seemed our chance. I brought the balloon down. We landed in a fierce wind in a snowed forest. We left the balloon and everything but our compass and started in the general direction of the hut we had seen from the air.

"We suffered severely. None were properly clad for severe weather and it was agony for us. We walked until 4 p. m. and stopped because it was getting dark and our feet were almost frozen stiff. The only food we had was three carrier pigeons, which we had taken on the trip to send back to the station with a message.

"Tuesday night I killed one of them, which we ate. We ate snow to quench our thirst. We could not sleep, and saw little hope of ever getting out of the forest alive.

Our clothes were covered with snow and ice. The fire we built was large, but it was so cold that when we turned our face to the fire our backs would freeze.

"Wednesday morning we started out to hike through the woods again, walking two hours at a stretch, then stopping to build a fire and regain our strength. The woods were so thick we could not make more than a mile and a half in a day. Our misery lasted until Friday morning, when about 9 o'clock we reached an ice-covered stream and found to our great joy the track of a sled and the footprints of a man. We followed the tracks for miles and about 1 p. m. sighted a man about two miles away on a lake. I shouted frantically and ran for 30 minutes, finally overtaking him. He was an Indian trapper and I could speak neither English nor French. I finally made him understand how hungry and sick we were. He led us to this place (Moose Factory). We are 20 miles (proved to be 200) from a railroad and it will take us about ten days hiking over an ice-covered river to reach a town. We begin our march from here on Wednesday and won't be in New York before January 10th."

The second letter is dated "Moose Factory, December 21st. A change has occurred which will delay our return to New York about seven days. Instead of leaving tomorrow, as planned, I won't be able to start until the 27th. We are 200 miles from the railroad. The manager of the Hudson Bay company here is subsisting us and is going to send us out by special dog sled. He is going to make all preparations for our clothing and Indian guides, dog teams, etc. to make the trip. This takes time and patience.

"The only whites here are Hudson Bay employees. There are no white women here except the wife of Mr. Thorp, who lives on the other side of the island, about two and half miles away. "We were over there this afternoon and had tea and a very good walk back. In calculating the distance traveled by air on this trip, which so unexpectedly nearly cost us our lives, I figure I have made a new navy record. By the time these letters reach you the newspapers will have flashed the news of our safety because I am sending an official wire to the commanding officer by a packet which takes out mail on Thursday. I will be here on Christmas and will be traveling over Black Frozen River New Year's day, but I am happy to be alive. "You won't know this until after holidays. Out at the station they have probably given us up for lost. We leave here the 27th and expect to reach Mattice, Ontario, by January 30th, provided all goes well."

Another letter dated December 21 says: "After leaving the station (Long Island) at 1 p. m. we rose to an altitude of a thousand feet, passing over all good familiar scenes—Brooklyn, then New York. These wonderful sights are still fresh in my memory but what a comparison with present surroundings! Moose Factory! About 120 we were passing over Brooklyn and released one of our carrier pigeons. We passed over New York City crossed above the Hudson river and through a corner of New Jersey and over the Catskill Mountains. All were in excellent spirits. The course of the balloon was ideal for Canada. We were going fine, estimating we had plenty of altitude, when we were struck by a violent storm. We struck trees along side a mountain and had to throw out a good bit of ballast to clear the mountains. Finally we got free and rose to an altitude of 6,000 feet. The rain came in torrents, completely soaking our clothing. We could hear the wind howl as howling through the trees. Everything was pitch dark. The weather grew steadily colder, rain turning to sleet and then to snow.

"The following morning we were traveling north by west. All we could see were fields of ice, not a sign of life we could not land. We made several attempts to come close to earth but found it impossible to land. We knew then that we had gone beyond the St. Lawrence River and passed over that populated valley. We would have landed if we could and might have walked back to civilization. We continued in a violent gale which swept us over the ice-covered fields with a speed of an aeroplane. Hinton estimated our speed faster than the speed of the NC-4 when it made his trans-Atlantic flight. We kept on in the flight over frozen rivers and lakes, watching and waiting for some sign of civilization. We continued until we sighted the hut below, about 1 p. m., when I brought the balloon down in a fierce wind."

"COXEY'S ARMY" READY TO MARCH ON CAPITOL AS PROTEST OF EXPENSE

GOVERNMENTS MUST MAKE MUNITIONS IF WARS ARE TO STOP

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Until the private manufacture of munitions and explosives is stopped throughout the world and governments alone "make every gun and every shell," wars will continue, Senator Gronna, Republican of North Dakota, declared today in the Senate in urging the passage of a bill for the continuance of Munitions and the Sheffield, Ala., nitrate plants under a federal corporation directed by the War department.

The bill was reported favorably by the Senate agriculture committee, of which Senator Gronna is chairman. Its supporters state its purpose is the development of a great governmental establishment for making of nitrate, used in turning out explosives and fertilizer. Its passage at this session in an amended form is predicted by Senator Gronna and other senators favoring it.

They concede, however, that it will face stronger opposition in the House than in the Senate. Senator Leonard led the attack in the Senate on the bill today, which was met by Senators Gronna and Underwood.

"We have six auto trucks already pledged that will carry some thousands and blankets for 4,000 marchers that we believe we will have recruited by that time," said Kruse, whose office is in the headquarters of the International Brotherhood of the Railroad Brotherhood. "I know President-elect Harding and like him too," said Kruse, "and I feel that he will not be so deeply interested in the real problems of the country as we for any other candidate at his disposal."

Florida's Fame Is Far Reaching

Within the week a family of six, four of them children, arrived in this state after a journey of more than 5,000 miles from the Canadian Northwest. The trip was made in a Ford, the party passing through twelve states to reach Florida. For 1400 miles the snow ranged from several inches to two feet in depth. So far this is the longest trip made to reach "The Land of Happiness and Perpetual Sunshine." This particular section of Florida is so blessed with just the right mixture of comfortable healthful climate, superior scenic effects and delightful natural advantages which are unsurpassed in any other part of the world. The claim that this is "The Best Place in the United States to Live the Year 'Round" is based upon the opinion of those who know. BIM AND BOM, THE BOLSHIE BUFFOONS, BUNK IN BASTILE

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)
STOCKHOLM, Jan. 8.—The two most popular men in Moscow are Bom and Bom.

They are clowns. But despite their popularity they appear in public only once every six or nine months.

They appear as soon as they get out of jail. And they go back to jail as soon as they appear.

Here is a gag which Bom and Bom introduced to the public and which introduced them to jail.

Bom sits in the circus arena and munches a crust of black bread. Mutely.

Bom, seated with the audience, cries to him, "Hi, there! Chuch that! You've been eating for 10 minutes without saying a single word."

Bom points to the audience and says, "What about it? All these people haven't had a square meal for three years, and they also are silent."

Wild applause.

Jail for Bom and Bom.

After their release from prison the clowns appeared in the circus as two men moving to a new flat.

Bom is holding pictures of Lenin and Trotsky.

Bom asks, "What are you going to do with them?"

Bom answers, "We will hang up this one and the other we will stand against the wall."

More wild applause. Jail again for Bom and Bom.

"We have a better one than that to spring when we get out of the Bolshie bastille," say Bom and Bom.

Cattaneo's Chop Suey Restaurant To Open Tuesday

Artistically arranged in keeping with the theme of the far east, Cattaneo's Chinese Restaurant and Chop Suey Rooms are in readiness for the opening on Tuesday, January 11. Several rooms over Cattaneo's Grill and also taking those on Myrtle avenue, comprise the spacious home of this long needed addition to the catering list of the East Coast. Daytona has had chop suey parlors before, but nothing like the well appointed rooms arranged to suit the ideas of H. Cattaneo who has earned an enviable reputation as proprietor of the grill which bears his name.

A Chinese chef will be in charge. He arrived Thursday direct from the Peking restaurant of New York and is none other than the celebrated Ng Sney who knows how to prepare Chinese dishes so that they will have an appeal all their own. His menu for the opening day will run the gamut of Chinese cooking.

Private dining rooms for parties of four or more are a feature and these may be arranged for in advance. The balcony dining room overlooking the Indian river with its latticed walls and elegant views, its Chinese paravents and lanterns with their soft glow presents a distinctive Oriental atmosphere which should add greatly to the enjoyment of the meals served there.

Chop suey and Chinese dishes will be served daily from 2:30 p. m. to 1:30 a. m., while tea will be featured each afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30. Service will be as to the intimate and the care all that could be desired. A special kitchen for the preparation of Chinese dishes has been arranged on the second floor and will be supervised by Ng Sney himself. However, the management of Cattaneo's Grill will be pressed into service when steaks, chops or distinctively American dishes are desired. In other words it will be a Chinese restaurant plus.

A $1,000,000 Tip

William E. B. Shearn who now fills the position as manager and head waiter for Cattaneo's Grill has the unique distinction of receiving one of the largest tips ever given a head waiter. This occurred in June 1935 at the Brunswick hotel in Boston, and was at the conclusion of a breakfast, evidently perfect and satisfactorily served as the guest after consuming $2.75 worth of food wrote out a check payable to "Best Steak B.T.Y. Shearn" for $1,000.00 and presented it as a token of appreciation. The check was on a Boston bank and was duly cashed by the recipient.

Mrs. Shearn in 1929 conducted the Times Square Restaurant on Broadway and 42nd street, New York, and became famous for his attacks and sauces and was known as "Best Steak B.T.Y." Billy Shearn commenced his hotel career as waiter for John D. Archibald president of the Standard Oil Company and the late Pierce Lorillard one of the greatest sportsmen of this country. From there he was head waiter in the largest hotels of Atlantic City, New York and Boston. Mr. Shearn is very versatile and is always ready to serve his guests.

County Schools to Be Closed for the Rural Conference

During the session of the National Bureau of Education, at the Auditorium January 26 to 29, will also occur the Rural Conference, which will be attended by noted educators from every part of the country, principally from Florida.

During that time the schools of Volusia county will be closed, affording a holiday for the students on Friday, Jan. 21 and Monday, Jan. 24, that all teachers of the county may attend these most important meetings, which will be addressed by some of the greatest educators of America.

It is probable that other surrounding counties will also release their teaching staff for the conference. It is expected that no less than 300 teachers and other educators of Florida will be in attendance. It is the biggest affair of its kind ever held in Florida and is attracting national attention.

In order that the large number of visitors to the Triple Cities at that time may be accommodated, with the hotels and rooming houses at height of their season, it is planned that as large a number as possible of the visitors be accommodated at the homes of residents. For this purpose a campaign will be shortly inaugurated through the churches, that all homes where one or more guests may be accommodated from Friday, Jan. 26 to Monday, Jan. 29, may be listed. The Daytona Chamber of Commerce has the matter in hand, and will keep a complete list of all possible homes where visitors may spend the week-end at that time.

It is desired that anyone being able to accommodate guests at that time request rooms to the Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible, that all arrangements may be completed before the date of the Rural Conference.

Patrons of Film Theatres Must Be Protected

In speaking of the recent picture show fires a prominent writer visitor said:

"Destruction by fire of the two-colored picture shows during last week emphasized the fact that they were veritable fire traps. While their loss is regrettable, yet it might have been much worse and the conflagration started when either or both were crowded with patrons. 'Safety first' doesn't seem to apply to the Daytona picture shows, but it is a matter of common sense that two burned down without loss of life or serious personal injury to anyone. The colored people want picture shows and are entitled to them, but in the construction of new ones the protection of patrons should be considered. The buildings should at least, to a measure, be fire-proof and observe ordinary precautions as to exits. No doubt there will be additional picture shows built within the next year for which patrons now that the price of building material is going down, and in their construction there should also be all modern precautions as to safety."

Every Indication President-Elect Will Stop Here

There is every indication pointing to the presence of President-elect W. C. Harding and party in Daytona the latter part of this month, or early in February, the latest fact which indicates such a possibility being the receipt of a telegram Saturday by Robt. S. Holmes, president of the Florida Assembly and Forum asking for data on the depth of the river, and at the docks in the vicinity of Daytona. This information points to a proposed visit of the president-elect to the Triple Cities about the painful yacht of Senator Jos. S. Freylinghausen of New Jersey, whose guest Mr. Harding will be while in the state, his plans now calling for his boarding the house boat at St. Augustine for a trip to Miami. Information as to the depth of the channel and other facts requested have been forwarded to parties in Marion. It is also believed that William Jennings Bryan, together with the New Jersey senator will be in the party stopping here.

Forum Speaker Here

Dr. Samuel Zane Batten, of Philadelphia, noted divine, who will be the speaker-guest of the Forum this afternoon arrived in the Triple Cities Saturday, and while here is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. S. Holmes, of Daytona Beach. With an exceptional address for this afternoon, and an interesting musical program as well, it is expected that the Auditorium will be well filled for the second Sunday Forum afternoon of the season.

Measuring for Costumes

L. L. McBride, director of the great Continental Congress Pageant which will be given at the Auditorium during the Educational Conference noted Mr. Holmes, Saturday that all measurements for the elaborate costumes to be used in the play must be forwarded to Washington on Monday, an immense task considering the fact that from 75 to 100 persons will take part in the play, the greatest undertaking ever attempted in the South, which was postponed from last season.

Check for Local Motor Licences Reported Stolen

Word has been received by Chas. Burgman, that a check for $57 which he had forwarded to Ernest Amos, comptroller, was stolen from the Tallahassee postoffice recently while en route to be deposited, and asked that payment of the check be stopped, which was done.

Mr. Amos writes that a letter containing a number of checks, while en route to the bank had been stolen, and that some of the checks had been later found in a trash basket on the street while a number of others were still missing, among the latter being the local check, which was the sum paid for a number of automobile licenses which Mr. Burgman had forwarded.

Those who had paid the money, are receiving their licenses, however, and efforts are being made to find the thief of the check.

HAMMOND, Ind., Jan. 5.—This Indiana town claims the distinction of honoring the world's champion consumer of food.

The champion's name is John Hines, 21 1/2 years old, who recently gave an exhibition of his prowess at a public hall here. Hines said he ate at one sitting:

Twenty-seven feet of pork, a couple of pounds of raw hamburger, three chickens, including one four-legged one, he broiled the whole within a gallon of "beer."

His ardent admirers are firm in the conviction that Hines upon leaving the hall closed the door with the remark: "Well, guess I'll go down town and get a little something to eat."

Mrs. C. G. Burgoyne has once again expressed her generosity in the welby forwarding a check for $50 to the Civic department of the Palmetto club, in connection with the Charity

In forwarding the check Mrs. Bur-of the community.

The ladies of the club were greatly pleased by the receipt of the check,

DIGGING FOR MONEY
SUPPOSEDLY BURIED
DURING WAR OF 1812

(International News Service)
ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Jan. 8.—
A lost treasure romance has thrown this peaceful little city, embowered among orchards and vineyards on the Grand Trunk railway, into a furor of excitement.

Since the war of 1812 a tradition has lingered that a large sum in gold lies buried in a cemetery at the edge of town and certain superstitious folk have averred that in the midnight watches a ghost in the cocked hat and regimentals of a soldier of a bygone era stands guard above the treasure. The old graveyard, recently was included in a residence subdivision and it became necessary to shunt the ashes of the pioneers. When all advertisement for workmen appeared hundreds who had never done meaningful labor in their lives rushed to secure pick and shovel jobs.

The legend goes that when the American troops under General Winfield Scott crossed the Niagara frontier into Canada, a paragon of the British forces looted the spot, carrying the treasure and to work the spot carried the initials on a bench tree. He fell soon after at the battle of Lundy's Lane and carried his secret with him to the grave. How the cemetery became identified as the burying place of the treasure is a story of lost years, but by the time the legend arose the pitiful necro-logy had been chopped down for longwood.

Estimates have placed the buried payroll at $200,000 of $100,000, but though the digging has now been in feverish progress for some time, and a whole good deal has far less than uncovered.

TROUBLE WITH ARGENTINE

(United Press)
BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 8.—Senator Proroca's withdrawal of his opposition to the emergency tariff bill before the United States Congress caused much gloomy comment here today. Both Argentine and United States business men predicted that the passage of the bill would result in a terrible war between the two countries. Business conditions are such as to make both groups view the situation as grave.

least the result of the match between of the fight is given in the Hanover-championship, all categories."

French newspapers which reproduce this story add: "This is probably what will happen."

some have been offered for sale. Cost of production averaged 46 pence a

Leading Hotels of the East Coast of the Great Winter Playground of the World

Visitors Coming to the East Coast of Florida May Be Assured of Good Service and Reasonable Charges at the Hotels Listed in These Columns

Interesting Guest From Oklahoma in Triple Cities

One of the most interesting and interested guests in the Triple Cities during the latter part of the week was Mrs. W. B. Webster, of Oklahoma City. She was making her first visit to Florida and words seemed inadequate for her in expressing her delight with the matchless climate, the beauty of the cities, the wonderful beach and the grandeur of the sea. She made it a point to visit various of the big hotels and considered them wonderfully beautiful. She is a woman well along in years and her husband was an architect, well known in the community in which they long resided. Before coming to Daytona, and the beach, Mrs. Webster spent a few days in Jacksonville, but was not so favorably impressed with that city as she said it rained much of the time she was there.

From Daytona she went to Pensacola, where she will spend a week or so and then continue her trip to New Orleans.

While in Daytona she said that for the first time in her life she picked oranges from the tree. She said that people coming to Florida should surely come as far south as Daytona and be sure to get beyond the frost line. Conditions in Oklahoma are excellent and all the cities in that state seem to be prospering.

HOTEL CLARENDON

Season guests are rapidly arriving at the Hotel Clarendon and the weather during the week has been so wonderfully fine that all express themselves as glad to be here and happy to avoid the rigors of the northern winter. Among the number are:

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Hopkins, Atlanta, Ga.
Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bulcher, Detroit, Mich.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Rogers, Chicago, Ill.
Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Willie, Huntington, W. Va.
Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bobbitt, Indianapolis, Ind.
J. D. Southern, New York City.

HOTEL DESPLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Dibble, of Luba, N. Y., and Miss M. Stuart, of Honeoye Falls, N. Y., are making a tour of the East Coast and spent a few days in Daytona, during which time they were guests at the Despland. They are enjoying their trip. Mrs. Charles L. Adams, Miss M. Nelson, Miss L. H. Delano and E. R. Camber, who have been spending a few days very pleasantly at the Despland, have gone by motor to St. Petersburg.

Frank Tracey and a party of friends were dinner guests at the Despland on Thursday.

H. S. Ellis, of Jacksonville, has been attending to business matters in Daytona and while here was a guest at the Despland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jarrett and James Wenox, of St. Albans, Vt., are among those who recently arrived at the Despland, as is also Mrs. H. D. Robinson, of Cleveland, Ohio.

RIDGEWOOD HOTEL

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woodman, Miss Hannah Woodman and John W. Power, of Portland, Maine, were luncheon guests at the Ridgewood on Saturday.

G. E. Thompson motored up from Miami Friday and was a guest at the Ridgewood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ulmer drove down from Jacksonville Friday and were guests at the Ridgewood.

E. N. Dickson, of New York, was a recent guest at the Ridgewood.

Mrs. Charles Bachelor and daughters, Miss E. Bachelor and Miss R. Bachelor, of New York, are season guests at the Ridgewood, having arrived Friday. Among other recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. M. Hellman and son, of Jersey City, N. J.; Miss E. Neuman and sister, of Jersey City; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ely, Miss Ozell Thompson and Miss N. Simonds, of Torre Haute, Ind.

PRINCESS ISSENA

To serve his guests with the very best of everything regardless of the cost is the determination of Manager Henry W. Haynes of the Princess Isseena, and this he does. This week in order to get the quality of cream that he desired to use in his dining room he had it sent from Boston, getting ten gallons at one shipment at an express charge of $18.00. The cream came in refrigerator can and cans and was in fine condition. Surely some effort and expense, but these are the things that make the Princess Isseena one of the most popular resort hotels in the state.

Manager Henry W. Haynes has had a new and attractive sign painted for his hotel. It is of proportions and coloring that it is noted by every passerby. The sign was painted by the L. H. Ramsey company of Daytona and the subject is legendary Indian Princess Isseena.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Plumb and daughter, Miss Frances, of Pittsfield, Mass., have arrived at the Princess Isseena for the balance of the season. Mr. Plumb is the proprietor of the big Maplewood hotel in Pittsfield, which is one of the best known hostels in New England. They are nicely located in the cottage Cherokee and express themselves as delighted with their surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Twells, of Woodbury, N. J., who are spending some time in Miami, motored to the Triple Cities Friday and were guests at the Princess Isseena. The July weather that Florida is giving her tourists in January makes many of those in Miami and other of the more southern resorts glad to enjoy the perfect climate and delightful sea breezes that prevail in this section of the state.

J. C. Roush and family, of Pittsburgh, have arrived at the Princess Isseena and are occupying the new cottage built especially for their use. Mr. Roush is president of the Standard Talking Machine company and has often visited Seabreeze and they are all delighted with the winter weather they find here.

William Fletcher, of Paterson, N. J., is among the recent arrivals at the Princess Isseena, as is also Arthur Means, of New York City, and Fred J. Wagner, of Smithtown.

MORE ALCOHOL MAY BE HAD DURING 1921 FOR INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES

(Newspaper Enterprise Association)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Alcohol in still larger volume will pour out of warehouses during 1921. But not for beverage purposes. It will be tagged for "industrial purposes only." Increased flow of alcohol out of the storage places is made possible by a decision by Secretary of the Treasury Houston, high boss in matters of tariff, but many existing barriers he lifted to encourage the commercial use of alcohol and to promote the manufacture of that product for industrial purposes.

That much of the alcohol so released will be used in "arts" other than scientific, is accepted as true by Secretary Houston, but he said today this view would not stand in the way of legitimate enterprises. Steps have been taken to safeguard this heavier outgoing supply of alcohol so that the supply will be restricted to legitimate uses. Efforts will be made to prevent abuse of permits. Great quantities of pure grain alcohol have reached various legal channels of trade, but subsequently has found its way to bootleggers, who put it out to the "trade" in some rectified form. This alleged "whiskey" red and fiery, and with the kick of a Missouri mule, has grain alcohol as its base, and is being peddled throughout the country as the genuine article.

This is known to dry law officers and higher-ups, but Secretary Houston, heeding the protests of large business concerns interested in industrial alcohol, has determined that legitimate permit holders entitled to withdraw alcohol, have been too greatly hampered and that they must not be allowed to suffer financial losses because of illicit diversions. Houston believes the prohibitive features of the dry law will not be greatly endangered by the more liberal ruling which he has approved.

PRINCE GEORGE

There have been many motoring parties during the past week to Daytona and the beach and several have stopped at the Prince George for rest and dinner. This hotel being located on the Dixie Highway as well as on the principal street of Daytona makes it a very convenient place for motorists.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pinney and son, E. J. Pinney, Jr., and G. P. Dempsey, of Springfield, came in their Pierce-Arrow and enjoyed dinner at the Prince George and a rest on the magnificent veranda of that hotel.

W. P. Fletcher and T. P. Abbott, of Stoneham, Mass., and M. R. Watson, of Revere, Mass., came this way in their Studebaker and were guests at the Prince George.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hawkins and C. B. Anderson, of Portland, Ind., have also been recent guests at the Prince George.

Other recent arrivals have been: Mr. and Mrs. G. D. McCarty, of Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Donovan, of Abington, Mass.

T. V. Morgan, Brockton, Mass.

FRANK MORAN MAKES APPEARANCE IN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Frank Moran got into the limelight of publicity again after his bout with Joe Beckett—although he really didn't want to.

Frank appeared in the London Bankruptcy court in relation to his public examination under a receiving order. To those who knew what Moran drew down in his fight and who also knew of his recent purchases in real estate in the neighborhood of Brighton the news of his bankruptcy came as a shock.

It developed, however, that the proceedings dated from June 1915. At that time Frank was not in the best of financial spirits. The Savoy hotel brought action against him for the recovery of seventy pounds (about $350 then) and other creditors swelled up the liabilities to about $2,500. His assets were then given as "nil." At the hearing his lawyer explained that he was now in a position to pay the money and that all debts would be cancelled without delay and an application made for the annulment of the bankruptcy. An adjournment was thereupon made until January 28.

ENTIRE TICKET OF WOMEN IS ELECTED

YONCALA, Ore., Jan. 8.—Yoncala captured the City of Yoncala in a recent election. An entire municipal ticket of women was chosen, men opponents being defeated for all offices. The women of the city organized their campaign secretly and the men did not realize what was taking place until the votes were counted. A woman mayor was elected and four women were chosen to fill the positions on the city council board.

Tourist Club May Be Erected on the Soldiers' Parkway

Just now there are substantial reasons to believe that the beach is in reach of a satisfactory club house, particularly devoted to the comforts of the tourists.
This latest proposition has the support of some of the leading men and women of the beach and it is believed they have the energy and the tenacity to put it through. The plan is to take over the holding on the beach, which constitute a frontage of 48 feet and improvements thereon, of the Mothers' Service Flag club, the founders of Soldiers' Memory Park. The officers of this very excellent organization and at one time a very live one are:
President, Mrs. J. S. Barbo.
Vice President, Mrs. E. A. Branch.
Secretary, Mrs. George C. Smith.
Treasurer, Mrs. Robert Thoburn.
Yesterday Councilman Frank Bradley had a conference with Mrs. Barbo regarding the matter and they both agreed that it would be a very commendable enterprise to erect such a club house on this tract, as it certainly would be a most desirable place for it. It was urged that this would eliminate the difficulty of finding and securing desirable private property for the purpose and also that there is very little private property that would be so suitable for such a use. It is the idea of both that there should be complete co-operation between the city council, the Chamber of Commerce, every citizen interested in the welfare and future prosperity of the beach as a resort and as well of every tourist who has found the climate of this locality to their satisfaction and desire to return here in the future to spend the winter months.
It is the plan, if this project is to be pushed, to have a conference of those most interested in the building up of the city and decide upon a definite method of procedure. The necessary committees will be appointed and it is understood that every person interested will be given an opportunity to help make this old and fond dream of this locality a real live probability.
When the fire destroyed the building of the Mothers' Service Flag club had on these premises it left these good women with a debt of about $600. They had also invested considerable in improvements, they having constructed the flag stand and the steps leading to the beach and this project will also give them an opportunity to get their finances taken care of and as well as see to it that the property goes to beauty and substantially benefit the entire public.
Everyone to whom the News representative has spoken with regard to this purpose express themselves enthusiastically as to the plan and say they will gladly assist it. Mrs. Barbo says she will see the women association with her in the Mothers' Service Flag club and Councilman Bradley is making the matter a business with him. Here are two mighty good reasons why something should come of this and very soon.

PENINSULA LOCALS

Dr. Carl Barlow and young son, of Georgetown, Ky., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Hambrick, of 217 Hollywood avenue. They will remain there until they are permanently located. Mr. Hambrick is Dr. Barlow's uncle.
Mrs. A. Thompson, with her son, Harry Thompson, of Pierpont, N. Y.; Fred N. Stone, of Washington, D. C.; Ruth L. Carter, of Orlando, Fla.; R. W. Harkless, of Syracuse, Ind.; and T. A. Hutcheson, of Kansas City, Mo., are among the recent arrivals at the beach and have pleasant temporary quarters at the Rivera apartments.
Some of the Pennsylvania visitors are inquiring why there is not an organization of that matchless state here. They see Michigan and Kentucky so well organized and are wondering what is the matter with the old Keystone state. For the purpose of getting the Pennsylvanians together, all visitors from that state in the Triple Cities are requested to call at the tourist headquarters at the Dixie hotel, Daytona Beach, and register in the Pennsylvania book. They will be cordially received by the secretary, Mrs. Anna Macey Griffith.
Daytona Beach boasts of some mighty fine horseshoe pitchers, but as a pitcher of fingers, Charles L. Fix, of Fowler, Ind., is believed to be the most expert. It is not unusual for him to get three or four in a single game. If there are any in the Triple Cities or even in the state who would like to test out their skill with him, there is no doubt Mr. Fix will be glad to make it as interesting as he can for any who may apply. Mr. and Mrs. Fix are old fixtures at the beach and are pleasantly located at 116 Coates street.

PENINSULA LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rector and son, of Sham, Wis., are the guests of Mrs. Edward Rector and Mrs. Eva Reid at 105 Peninsula Drive. Mr. Rector is a son of Mrs. Rector and a brother of Mrs. Reid. They expect to be here for about a month.
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Black, of Portland, Ind., arrived yesterday, coming by rail to Jacksonville and by boat to Deland, then motored here. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Beck, of Live Oak street. Mr. Beck is Mrs. Black's brother. Mr. Black was for many years the postmaster and leading merchant of his home town.

"Mystery Party" Given By Silver Beach C. F. Girls

Local people must not conclude that the Silver Beach Camp Fire Girls always confine their activities to such benevolences as the Jacksonville Orphanage, Daytona Associated Charities, sale of Red Cross Christmas seals or the French War Orphans cause, as they are a fine bunch of young women, who can be gay as well as serious, frivolous as well as dignified, as was attested at the "Mystery Party" given at the home of one of the guardians, Miss Aleyne Webber, of New York.
Here is the way the quite "spooky" invitation to this affair read:
"Take notice one, take notice all. If you do not wish ill to befall: At the corner of Halifax avenue be, By the old school house at half past three.
On Wooten's day, come rain or shine. You will recognize us by this sign.
Yours Ghostly.
(Signed) Spirits of Mystery Party.
The girls, arrayed in spectral costumes, eagerly responded to the ominous invitation. "Joy was unconfined." Hilarity and boisterousness as the merry makers carried out the ghostly program of songs, games and dancing. The next meeting will be held Friday, January 14th, on the beach at 5 p. m. Each Camp Fire girl is requested to be present and bring a friend with her. This promises to be another jollification jammer.

Guy C. Bailey is Appointee, Aero Club of America

A number of passengers have enjoyed aerial trips with the Daytona Beach Flying club pilots, Frank Stanton and Bill Lindley, the past week. Where the pilots have had two or more passengers in one party for a trip, the pilots have taken one each in each of their planes, and have flown close together in the air, giving the passengers the greater delight in remaining in close proximity to each other while in the air. This method is, too, more comfortable than with two or more in the planes at one time, with one sitting on the lap of the other.
Among some of those who have enjoyed trips the past few days with Pilots Stanton and Lindley are Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bennett and son, Mrs. H. J. Corradi and William Herjodt, Dr. and Mrs. Lief, R. S. Smerit, the Misses Mary and Elinor Curry and Miss Ida Oliver.
Aviators Stanton and Lindley are the only pilots on the beach who have the sanction of the Daytona Beach-Seabreeze Chamber of Commerce, and are flying the cream colored planes. This is the fourth successful season Stanton and Lindley have flown here.
It is interesting to note that Guy C. Bailey on Saturday received notice that he had been appointed by the Aero Club of America to act as official representative of that body, and as observer for the Aero club at Daytona Beach and for this district of Florida. This appointment no doubt was made because of the great interest Mr. Bailey has taken in aviation, and the fact that he is really responsible for this form of entertainment for tourists on the beach, which is greatly appreciated by the tourists.
Mr. Bailey has also at all times endeavored to promote the interest and safety of both those enjoying flights and pedestrians.

DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN OF WISCONSIN AT BEACH

Among the latest arrivals at the Breakers hotel is Dr. H. A. Wolter, of Green Bay, Wis., one of the distinguished physicians of that state. He is here for a good rest and has selected a most commanding position for a view of the great ocean and to be convenient for fishing and bathing.
Dr. Wolter says that there is practically no business depression in Wisconsin and that prosperity still reigns in the Badger state. In politics he is an organization Republican and in his opinion the downfall of LaFollette is near at hand. He thinks that if it had not been for the intervention of a third candidate, James J. Blaine, LaFollette candidate for governor, would have been defeated this year by the Democratic nominee, who received the votes of many Republicans which the doctor calls the "white" class. He says as the reconstruction from a war basis proceeds, many Wisconsin people who have heretofore followed LaFollette are getting their eyes and ears open and are realizing the fallacy of his public policies. While he has no doubt the senator will be a candidate for re-election two years hence, he is confident he will be defeated.
Dr. Wolter expects to remain at the beach a good portion of the season and probably until April or May.

LATEST NEWS OFF THE TICKER FROM NEW YORK MARKET

(Dow Jones Service.)

The Senate may send a committee to Cuba to determine as to intervention in that country.

France is preparing to refund American loans, according to a report reaching Wall street yesterday.

Governor Harding, of the Federal Reserve Board, speaking in New York last night, said industrial depression is nearing an end and that the country will soon be on a sound basis once more.

Arguments have been begun in the United States supreme court in the invested capital case, which is characterized by the Solicitor General as the most important legal suit from the standpoint of government finance in a decade.

Thomson & McKinnon's stock letter today says: "I think that 1921 is going to be as hard on the shorts as 1920 was on the longs. They are now trying to obstruct a natural and orderly readjustment of values, and we are going to get the readjustment regardless of their operations. We have no foundation at present on which a Bull market with a big public following and indiscriminate buying, that will come when conditions are better than today, but we have ample reason for a further substantial recovery in values. It is possible that today or next week we may have some reaction and when we get it, be prepared to buy the stocks that the Bears will sell you on the break."

PROHIBITION WAVE HITS BOMBAY, INDIA

(International News Service.)

ALLAHABAD, India, Jan. 8.—A wave of temperance is passing over Bombay. Mohammedans and local passyfoots are picketing the local liquor shops. Mohammedans caught coming out are seized, their faces are blackened, and they are taken through the streets and made to suffer other indignities.

Several of the "reformers" have been sent to jail in consequence of disturbances caused by their picketings.

WAR VETERAN GETS THREE-YEAR SENTENCE

(International News Service.)

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 8.—"Shall shock," which explains many vagaries, is not an excuse for taking an $800 diamond stud, Judge Latschaw ruled in criminal court. He sentenced Ernest Kinney, 29 years old, of 1706 Wabash avenue, to three years in the state penitentiary.

"If I took the stud I don't remember it," said Kinney. "I was shell shocked in the war and the many strange things in lapses of memory." A R. Taylor, who lives on the Van Horn road, near Independence, Mo., said that Kinney took the diamond while a dinner guest at Taylor's home. The police say Kinney later pawned it for $50.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)
GREENVILLE, S. C., Jan. 8.—G. A. Wisheart, Jr., doesn't know the first name of his great-grandfather, and he's not worrying about it. Wisheart has just inherited $2,000,000 because his great-grandfather owned several blocks in Philadelphia. Litigation over the property lasted a hundred years.
